INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Lugano! Lugano is an elegant residence for up to twenty seven older people and those with a diagnosis of dementia. We are situated in a country setting within minutes of Epping Forest and all amenities. Lugano has been family owned for over 30 years and consider ourselves to be a “home away from home”.

The Manager of Lugano is Stephanie Mirams. Stephanie may be contacted by telephoning the home. Stephanie may also be contacted on 07885 474 444 and by email; luganocarehome@gmail.com. Any enquiries regarding vacancies at the Home should be directed to Stephanie.

The Responsible Individuals of Lugano are David Pearce and Michael Brook and they can also be contacted at the Home.

The home was established by David and Michael in 1986 and has a very interesting history. Lugano has been under family proprietorship and supervision for all of this time. This has resulted in our considerable expertise at caring for the elderly and is reflected in the atmosphere of the home, which is friendly and relaxed.

The Home can accommodate twenty-four service users in 24 single bedrooms (several have en-suite facilities) and 3 are lounge bedrooms. Bedroom sizes range between 10 and 16 square metres. Ten bedrooms are located on the ground floor, with all others being easily accessible on the first and second floor by using the lift. The building is 120 years old and benefits from many spacious rooms. It is therefore particularly well suited to the use of wheelchairs if required. Communal rooms include a beautiful dining room and lounge. Lugano is set in a lovely location with stunning gardens overlooked by a lovely terrace

NEEDS AND INTERESTS CATERED FOR

We can currently cater for up to 24 service users over the age of 65, both male and female. Both state funded (with top up) and private fee paying residents are welcome. A small proportion of service users may be diabetic with basic nursing requirements. However, we are not a registered nursing home and as such cannot offer full time nursing care, although we use full district nurse support services and individually tailor appropriate care plans. Our current service user group does not include anyone with special religious, cultural or linguistic needs. However, we are open to offering such services, provided that assessment procedures demonstrate that we would be able to provide them. Religious attendance for external services is possible for some service users, with certain denominations offering a collection service. Our visiting Minister from St John's holds monthly services and religious festivals at Lugano and all are welcome.

Prior to and upon admission to the home, service users can expect a full assessment of their needs.

Daily life for service users in the home will include plenty of choice regarding meal times and content. Our kitchen is managed by our very capable and willing qualified team. She offers a rotating menu of fresh home-cooked food and there are always alternatives on offer if desired. Cooked meals are available three times a day and there is no restriction upon access to snacks and sandwiches etc.

Daily care needs for service users are met by our care teams; these may include assistance with personal hygiene, feeding, oral care and mobility. Individual care plans are written to assist with the care process. Where possible they are compiled with full consultation with service users concerned and/or their relatives. Relatives wishing to become involved in their relative's care plans are advised to discuss this with the Care Manager, Charlotte Blunt. She is responsible for implementing and reviewing all care plans on a monthly basis. Monthly reviews are conducted with the service user, our senior staff and other care professionals, for example, social workers. If a care plan needs an urgent update this may be conducted by senior care staff and the service user and the Manager will always be notified.

Where a service user is unable to advocate for themselves, we aim to use an external advocacy service, to provide impartial input into their needs and requirements.

Most people enjoy getting out and about and being part of our local community, we organise regular trips to the local towns for some shopping or a coffee and a cake. In addition to social outings, we also offered a range of in-house activities to suit a variety of tastes. The Social Calendar is located on the notice board in the Hallway every month for further information. Residents are also issued with their own personal copy of the social calendar, and it is also emailed out each month to relatives to keep people better informed. We like to include garden centre visits with lunch, canal boat trip & lunch on board, themed garden party and BBQ's, regular shopping trips, family barbecues throughout the summer months, coffee afternoons at Belgique, ladies (and gents!) theatre trips, monthly vintage tea afternoons on Fridays in Woodford Wells, carols by candlelight at Christmas.

Facilities at Lugano

- Country Gardens and Terrace, with Panoramic Views
- Hairdressing, Podiatrist and Beautician Services available
- Passenger Lift
- Internet and Wifi access for Residents
- Dedicated Resident telephone line with video call capabilities

We are always looking at ways to improve and expand our social calendar and are led by residents and their wishes. We have expanded our social calendar and use of our large dining area is made available to service users wishing to engage in hobbies. Expenses incurred for hobbies and certain social activities are not included in the basic fee for services. Upon admission to the home, we welcome the maintenance of relationships with the service user's friends and relatives. We have an open house policy and many friends and relatives enjoy occasional meals with our service user. We ask that all visitors to the Home record their entrance and exit in the file provided on the table by the front door.

We do not offer any in-house therapeutic services to service users. However, a number of external agents visit the home on a regular basis, and all residents have access to their services. These include optician, hairdresser, beautician, chiropodist etc. Other appointments that access healthcare services such as GP and dentist are made externally, unless medical services are needed in an emergency, when GPs will attend the premises. When external appointments are required it is company policy for Service Users to be accompanied, whenever possible, by a family member and for all transport/taxi costs to be met by the Service User. We may also access NHS Direct for advice relating to personal health issues.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE FOR LUGANO

Philosophy of Care

Our main purpose is to provide consistently high standards of professional care in order that those we care for can live as normally as possible, their individuality, independence and dignity being respected and upheld.

Aims and Objectives

The Aims and Objectives of Lugano are primarily to provide residential care for people within a safe, homely and caring community. We work closely with the six broad values provided as guidelines by the Department of Health, thus aiming to promote the following aspects of care:

Privacy

Those in our care expect to enjoy the same standards of privacy we all generally expect to enjoy. Being alone, free from intrusion and disturbance etc. are basic human rights and are reflected in our care practices and attitudes to our standards of care. By nature, being in a place of care provision can make it harder to enjoy privacy than, for example, living in one's own home. We need to stay alert to this and sensitive to its significance.

Confidentiality, trust, freedom from gossip all contribute to both the reality and perception of privacy, which is another reason why we take such matters so seriously.

Consultations with those in our care by the following professionals, and similar others, will always be strictly in private unless specifically requested otherwise:

- Health
- Social Care
- Law
- Finance.

Staff must always knock on the door before entering or being invited to enter a resident's room, bathroom or toilet.

Residents may have private use of the telephone whenever they want by using the hand held cordless phone, located in the office. Residents are expected to pay for telephone calls.

Dignity

We recognise the importance of maintaining the uniqueness and character of each and every person in our care. Thus we aim to uphold a standard of care that reflects this in practice.

Therefore, we are careful to avoid situations for those in our care that may lead to impairment of their self-esteem and sense of worth. Where such situations might occur we seek to diffuse them gently and sensitively.

The purpose is to uphold the dignity of anyone in our care. The spirit of this extends to staff, colleagues, visitors etc.

We will not tolerate any practices that may impair a person's dignity whilst practices that contribute positively to a person's dignity are encouraged.

Independence

There is always the possibility that a person in our care may come to rely on being cared for more than is necessary, thereby reducing their independence unnecessarily. Therefore, we encourage those in our care to do as much for themselves as possible. Our role is to assist them with those things they find difficult or are unable to do for themselves.

This is important because we seek to promote and encourage independence as far as is reasonable rather than unwittingly foster dependence.

From time to time we will have to accept varying degrees of risk when those in our care exercise their independence and we will note such circumstances in the care plan.

Choice

We encourage those in our care to exercise as much choice and make as many decisions for themselves as possible, thereby contributing to their autonomy and fulfilment.

A variety of residents' choices are recorded in their care plan and amended as circumstances change.

Choices could include:

- Use of room
- Activities
- Social interests
- Accepting/refusing visitors
- Where and what to eat
- Religious preferences
- Aids to independence
- Medication
- Risk taking
- Financial matters
- Waking/sleeping time
- Manner of dress
- Arrangements for death

Rights

The emphasis placed upon rights is an integral part of the quality of care we provide.

Those in our care are people and citizens of our country, which offers them significant rights morally, ethically, socially, politically and legally. We have a responsibility to ensure those rights are never infringed and that those in our care utilise their rights fully.

We promote and encourage those in our care to exercise their rights, which allows them to live as normal and full a life as possible. Such rights include:

- Confidentiality
- Dignity
- Privacy
- Independence
- Choice
- Self-esteem
- Fulfilment
- Respect
- Access to Services
- Access to information
- Consultation
- Involvement
- Professional advice
- Safety
- Right to take risks
- To complain
- Emotional needs
- Physical needs
- Spiritual needs

All rooms can be locked if required from the inside for privacy but locks can be over ridden in case of an emergency.

Individual temperature, light and ventilation levels can be controlled in bedrooms.

From time to time there may be tensions between a person's rights and our responsibilities for them, after all, they are, 'in care'. We need to manage such circumstances carefully. This will involve consultation between the Manager and the person in our care together with appropriate others such as their families, relatives, health and social advisers etc. Any subsequent actions will be recorded in the care plan according to any decisions made in an informed and considered manner.

Fulfilment

Our mission is to develop a community in which older people can continue to live full and engaging lives, where the desires of residents' direct and shape the rhythm of their daily lives. We recognise that the 'simple pleasures' in life can never be underestimated. This is why we have implemented Consistent Assignment.

What is Consistent Assignment?

Consistent Assignment is evidenced based and in order to achieve the desired benefits (shown below) we aim for 85% shifts to be allocated to the same care partners (residents/staff). Currently only 10% of nursing facilities operate this system although the findings of 11 in depth studies cite evidence for consistent assignment as the foundation for quality improvement. Research shows some of the benefits include:

Benefits for Patients/Residents after one year:

75% reduction in pressure sores/ulcers

18% decrease in loss of life

11% increase in discharges

Benefits for patients/Residents after two years:

36% increase in the number of ambulatory patients/residents

Benefits for Staff after one year:

29% decrease in staff turnover

26% of staff felt more accountable

40% felt more able to make and implement decisions

22% felt more able to plan and map care needs

We operate 3 teams/partnerships with a ratio of approximately 1 Carer to 4.5 Residents. Each team works to their own agenda and residents' decide how they want to spend their day and what kind of events they want to engage in both inside and outside Lugano. We work hard to ensure all social needs can be met and nourish mind, body and soul.

Accountability

As a Residential Care Home for Elderly People, Lugano is subject to the statutory regulations and recommendations prescribed in the Essential Standards for Care Homes that accommodate older people. These are issued by the Department of Health. The Care Quality Commission (CQC) is the statutory body that is responsible for our regulation. They regularly inspect care services such as ours and issue reports on their findings.

The Essential Standards Department of Health document and the CQC inspection reports for Lugano are available to view in either the entrance to the Home or the office. Our last successful inspection was carried out in February 2021 and we are pleased to announce that we are fully compliant and achieved a 'Good' rating.

More information about the regulations and the CQC may be obtained via the internet at: www.cqc.org.uk

A set of Policies and Procedures are located in the office. Our Statement of Purpose, Service User Guide and our Policies and Procedures provide the operational framework through which Lugano commits itself to ensuring that we comply with the regulations and recommendations contained within The Essential Standards Department of Health document and other affiliated legislation.

We welcome any queries relating to aspects of the issues contained in this brochure. Please direct these enquiries to the Manager.

TARIFF

Fees range from £1395 to £1495 per week. Fees depend entirely upon the room size and facilities available. If you are enquiring about a particular vacancy, Stephanie Mirams can advise you about fees for that vacancy.

VIEWS AND OPINIONS OF THE HOME

These are very important to us. To regularly improve the quality of our service we will annually audit our service every March with anonymous questionnaires. The results will be available in a booklet entitled 'Quality Assurance Stakeholder Survey' that can be found on display with our inspection reports at the entrance to the Home. However, the best way to evaluate our service is for service users and their relatives to communicate directly with us. We are always interested in what you think, so please let us know.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Lugano has a complaints procedure and it is located in the office. If you are dissatisfied with any aspect of our service please contact the Manager, Stephanie, in the first instance. Stephanie will respond to a formal complaint in writing within 48 hours and will hope to resolve your complaint with 28 days of receipt. Lugano has received many compliments over the years and we have a compliments folder located in the office. Here is one entry with the names changed to protect confidentiality:

“Of all the letters to be written this is the most difficult, because to find adequate words to express our profound gratitude for the loving care given to Ann for the time she was at Lugano is almost impossible.

Although mum had dementia we are sure she knew all the staff who cared for her as she always had a ready smile for them; this in itself was proof of how happy, content and safe she felt at Lugano.

Thank you got making Mum’s last years so very happy, we shall never forget”.
